Ottolenghi

Introducing Yotam Ottolenghi, the visionary chef behind London's culinary sensation. With six beloved delis and restaurants under his belt, Ottolenghi has become synonymous with innovation and flavor. Boasting eight best-selling cookery books, including the iconic "Plenty," "Jerusalem," and "Simple," Ottolenghi has inspired food enthusiasts worldwide.

His culinary prowess has earned him accolades, including two James Beard awards in the US and the esteemed UK National Book Award. As a columnist for the Saturday Guardian for over thirteen years and a regular contributor to The New York Times, Ottolenghi continues to inspire and educate with his culinary expertise.

But Ottolenghi's influence extends beyond the kitchen. His unwavering dedication to championing vegetables and redefining "exotic" ingredients has sparked what many call "The Ottolenghi effect" – a celebration of vibrant, bountiful meals bursting with color and sunshine.

For his first range of tableware & vases, Feast & Sicily, Ottolenghi partnered with Serax. Together they succeeded in translating his culinary narrative into tangible objects, bridging the gap between the earthy and the sophisticated, tradition and novelty.

Inspired by the creative genius of his friend and collaborator Ivo Bisignano, Ottolenghi's tableware collection embodies honesty, expressiveness, and joyful vibrancy – mirroring the bold flavors and colors that define his culinary creations.

FEAST — TABLEWARE

With an abundance of colours, vegetable prints and positive vibes the Feast collection reflects everything his creator stands for. The British-Israeli chef Yotam Ottolenghi created this range of expressive tableware with the most joyful of gatherings in mind: coming together with friends and family, sharing food and exchanging stories. On this project the chef joined hands with Italian artist Ivo Bisignano. “Ivo is a good friend as well as a soul-mate for the creative process in all Ottolenghi graphics”, Yotam Ottolenghi states. “His art, in whatever medium, is honest, expressive, bold, joyful and colourful. Attributes we strive to achieve in our food.”

The Feast collection is characterized by an impulsive gesture of an ‘O’ shaped brush stroke. “I have an obsession for the O”, Ivo Bisignano explains. “The O shape of a face, the O of a circle, a dot, a double dot and of course: the O of Ottolenghi. The continuum of the O shape is something I find very intriguing.” Apart from the graphic language of the O the artist also incorporates abstract images of vegetables, an essential ingredient in Ottolenghi’s signature cuisine. “I have drawn thousands of vegetables in this process trying to achieve the effect of stamping actual vegetables on a plate”, he says. The result is a colourful esthetic that gives every user the personal freedom to create a celebration, a true feast, every single day. “The plates are like different spices”, Bisignano explains. “It is the combination and proportion of the different components that will define the flavour.”

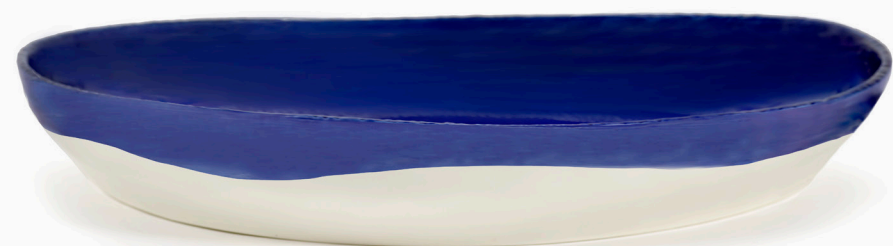

FEAST — SERVEWARE

The various sizes in serveware, the vibrant colours and different patterns all evoke the typical Ottolenghi feeling of 'outrageous casualness'. Of creating tables that are informal but very abundant, eccentric even, at the same time. "We have tried to tell the Ottolenghi story in objects. It is a story of the tension between the earthy and the sophisticated, between passion and refinement, tradition and novelty. Ostensible opposites, existing together in dynamic harmony", Ottolenghi says. "This collection is a collaboration nourished by camaraderie and by the sharing of lovingly-made food around a beautifully-laid table."

GLASSWARE

FEAST — GLASSWARE

Because every feast needs a good drink, Ottolenghi's Feast collection has two wine glasses, one for white and one for red. In theory, that is. Since the glasses are very versatile, they can be used for anything from water to soda to juices and cocktails. The line design that forms the O on many of the pieces is repeated by etching on the base of each glass, one in white, and other in gold. That results in a lovely effect, adding a further element of eclecticism to the collection.

FEAST — KITCHEN & TABLE ACCESSORIES

Yotam Ottolenghi's deep understanding of crafting experiences shines through every detail. In his collection, the Feast food stands take center stage, each embodying distinctive aesthetics. From the robust cone-shaped stands, crafted from terracotta or concrete, harmonizing flawlessly with wooden trays, to the minimalist steel stands boasting sleek profiles in black or opulent gold. These essential accessories empower the user to curate their own Ottolenghi-inspired buffet, poised to astonish guests with unparalleled style and taste.

SICILY — INTERIOR ACCESSORIES

Bisignano's sophomore effort fully unleashes his vision for Ottolenghi's positive message of beauty, abundance and happiness. It's an explosion of the senses that will resonate on any table. As objects that will enliven your everyday, these vases are evocative of a Sicilian al fresco experience transported into your home. Savor the moment with these imaginative vessels that will transform your living and dining spaces with eccentric personality.

With the Sicily vase collection, they journey from the table to the outside. "In Sicily, where I grew up, you eat at the kitchen table while enjoying the view of the colourful balconies with their magnificent flowers", says Ivo Bisignano. Not only do the flowers stand out, but also the pots in which they are planted. The Testa di Moro are a household name in Sicily. These pots in the shape of a crowned head are to be found everywhere on balconies and in souvenir shops. They are based on an ancient legend. Bisignano gave it his own, slightly surrealistic twist: fish become pillars, lakes become fish, and mountains become kings and queens. Regardless of the medium he works in, Bisignano's art is honest, expressive, striking, cheerful and colourful. This is no different for the Sicily vases in hand-painted stoneware. Sicily captures Ottolenghi's exuberant cooking style and is simultaneously an ode to the sun, colours and passion of Bisignano's birthplace.
