The collaboration of Studio Piet Boon with Serax reflects a shared passion for beauty, and a commitment to delivering perfection. Merging design, individuality and functionality has resulted in a sophisticated complete range of tableware, including glassware and cutlery, and cookware - Base by Studio Piet Boon and Serax.

Base - Tableware

Base is a tableware collection that stands out for its timeless round shapes. Finished in immaculate white bone China, Base tableware is anything but boring. The neutral color does justice to dishes. And by playing with the different heights and sizes, you create optically surprising effects every time.

"Where minimalism and elegance converge in a pure and seemingly simple design."

Base - Glassware

The distinctive sleek, round shapes, and the perfect finish of the nine different glasses from the Base Glassware collection follow the trend of Studio Piet Boon's Base line for Serax. On an upright foot in the centre of a perfectly round circle, the four wine glasses, two champagne glasses, and the beer glass not only steal the show, the potassium glass also makes them particularly strong. The two water glasses have been given a sandblasted effect, as a result of which fingerprints are less likely to remain on the glass. The glasses from the Base Glassware collection are packed as a set of four in beautiful gift boxes.
